

Title of Course	Economics of European Integration
Semester	Autumn/Spring
Teaching Hours per Course:	Total	- Lectures:	- Tutorials:
	60	30	15
ECTS Credits	4
The content of education
Aims of Course	The aim of the course is to familiarize students with theoretical and practical aspects of international economic integration as well as rules, fields and effects of functioning of European Union: integration stages, EU-policies, Economic and Monetary union, the structures and functions of EU-institutions and law. During 15 hours of tutorials the students will have some cases studies and effects of internal markets (harmonization of legislation, common standardization and certification policy, horizontal policies, sectoral policies)
Program	1.Integration stages-the main reasons and purposes of present-day integration. 2.The essence and the origins of EU. 3. Institutions of EU and decision-making process. 4.EU single market 5.The system of EU common policies concerning the citizens, horizontal policies, sectoral policies 6.Common trade policy 7.Competition policy.8.Industrial and enterprise policy. 9.Transport policy.10.Agricultural and Fisheries policy.11.Cohesion policy- the case study 2014-2020.12.Economic and Monetary Union- European system of central banks.13 EU in world economy and politics-the future of Eu-integration
Conditions of completion	Students shall pass the exam (traditional and multiple choice) and prepare some simulations on the topics indicated by the teacher
Teacher	Prof.dr habil. Katarzyna Duczkowska-Małysz		