

Title of Course	Money and Capital Market
Semester	Autumn/Spring
Teaching Hours per Course:	Total	- Lectures:	- Tutorials:
	30	30	-
ECTS Credits	3
The content of education
Aims of Course	The aim of the course is to provide knowledge about theoretical and practical aspects related to the functioning of the financial market, including the money market and the capital market. The lecture focuses on the Polish financial market.
Program	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The essence and functions of financial markets 2. Micro- and macroeconomic conditions of financial markets 3. Financial market instruments 4. Money - introduction to the money market - (concept, functions, demand and supply of money, categories of money) 5. Deposit and credit market (bank deposit and credit activity, money creation) 6. Money market (essence, role and functions of the central bank, instruments, money market operations, risk) 7. Capital market (essence, functions, classifications, instruments, participants, risk) 8. Derivatives market (types of derivatives, purposes of using derivatives, risk) 9. Stock exchange (essence, classifications, organization of the WSE Capital Group, conditions for entering the WSE, types of stock exchange transactions, quotation systems, types of orders, stock indexes, Catalyst market, NewConnect market, risk). 10. Investment funds (essence, types, principles of operation, principles of investing in funds, risk).
Conditions of completion	The condition for passing the course is obtaining a positive grade from the exam (test) and the essay. The final grade consists of 50% of the grade for passing the test and 50% of the grade for the essay: 0%-49% - fail (F); 50%-60% - satisfactory (E); 61%-70% - satisfactory (D); 71% -80% - good (C); 81%-90% - very good (B); 91%-100% - excellent (A).
Teacher	Anna Stępnia-Kucharska, Ph.D.		