ASSESSMENT CRITERIA FOR WRITING (B1 requirements)

- TASK ACHIEVEMENT (maximum 4 points)

CONTENT

Points covered. The message is conveyed and the task is achieved. The writing is of an appropriate length.

EFFECT ON TARGET READER

The reader clearly understands the message.

- ORGANISATION (maximum 3 points)

GENERAL ORGANISATION

The organization is well-structured with a clear beginning, middle and end. It is divided into paragraphs. In letters, the appropriate layout and writing conventions are observed.

COHESION

There is little repetition of the same phrases. Not all the sentences are very short and simple.

Some complex sentences are used thus demonstrating appropriate use of cohesive devices (linkers).

REGISTER

The writing is consistently formal, informal, or neutral as dictated by the task.

- ACCURACY (maximum 3 points)

GRAMMAR

The grammar is mostly accurate. There may be some mistakes, but they do not impede understanding.

VOCABULARY

The vocabulary used is appropriate for the topic. The student demonstrates his /her ability to convey the message effectively. Repetition is generally avoided.

PROCEDURE

Each category is marked, points awarded and then scores totalled.

However, if the writing fails to address the topic, only ACCURACY will be marked (i.e. award up to 3 points).

Recording marks

Each piece of writing is read by two examiners. The first person does not correct the mistakes so as not to influence the other examiner. He/she writes down his marks in one lower corner (there is a special box for that on the examination paper) and folds up the corner.

The following symbols should be used: T for task, O for Organisation, A for Accuracy and S for Score.

The second examiner does not underline the mistakes as well, completes the second box in one lower corner, signs, unfolds the corner, and calculates the final score. Half points are rounded up (e.g. 5.5 to 6.0).

In case of significant divergence (3 points or more) the two examiners negotiate the final score.

Postępowanie w przypadku prac o liczbie słów niezgodnej z poleceniem:

- od 0 do 60 słów przyznajemy 0 punktów
- od 61 do 95 słów odejmujemy 1 punkt
- powyżej 170 słów odejmujemy 1 punkt.

Procedure in case of an incorrect number of words in the writing section:

- from 0 to 60 words – we give 0 points
- from 61 to 95 words – we deduct 1 point
- over 170 words – we deduct 1 point
